Eat the food: One of the biggest influences Hispanics and Latinos have had on American culture is their unique and savory cuisine. Hispanics account for a large portion of people under 37 in the country and are projected to the "growth drivers" of the eating patterns of Americans over the next five years, according to a report by the NPD Group titled, "The Future of Eating: Who's Eating What in 2018?" What better way to celebrate than by indulging on plates filled with Hispanic and Latino goodies, including tacos, rice and beans and yuca fries? (10/6 Ms. Milloy)
