RHO KAPPA THIS DAY IN HISTORY Abolitionist

On this day in 1818, it is the possible birthday of Frederick Douglass. Though the specific day of his birthday isn't confirmed, he celebrates it on February 14 due to the fact that his mother called him "Little Valentine." Frederick Douglass later became an orator, an abolitionist against slavery and advocated for women's rights like right to vote.

Rho Kappa Honor Society is running a scavenger hunt during February and the top participants by the end of the month will receive a prize! To join, please visit our instagram\(@preuss_rhokappa\) for rules and hints on the scavenger hunts. Enjoy finding our props around campus!"
