THIS DAY IN HISTORY

On the year 1958, technician Robert Dvorak spent two weeks building a device that would display the first video game. He called the game Tennis for Two, which became a very popular exhibit that would have people waiting long lines to get the chance to play.

 Unleash Your Inner Storyteller with Broadcast Journalism!

Attention high schoolers grades 10-12! Are you ready to dive into the exciting world of storytelling? Then join Ms. Hannah for an exhilarating journey in Broadcast Journalism!

In this A-G College Prep elective, you'll discover the power of your voice as you learn to craft compelling narratives, conduct captivating interviews, and deliver news like a pro. Whether you're interested in being in front of the camera or behind the scenes, this class is your ticket to unlocking your potential in the dynamic field of media.

Get ready to uncover stories that matter, ignite change, and leave a mark on the Preuss community. With Ms. Hannah's guidance, you'll develop critical thinking skills, hone your communication abilities, and gain hands-on experience in producing content that informs, entertains and inspires.

If you have a B or higher in English, seize this opportunity to thrive in Broadcast Journalism. Ask your counselors about joining when they come to your Advisory and present on course selections this month. Your voice matters, and it's time to make it heard!
