April Is National Poetry Month. Ever have a tough day? Today's poem for April 19, 2017 is by Langston Hughes, a famous African American poet that many students know because of his "Dreams Deferred" poem. In the poem below, he captures those difficult times we sometimes feel called "the blues."

THE BLUES

When the shoe strings
On both your shoes
And you're in a
That's the blues.

break
hurry—

When you go to buy a candy bar
And you've lost the dime you had—
Slipped through a hole in your pocket somewhere—
That's the blues, too, and bad!

Reminder Items:

Attention All Middle And High School Girls. The Society of Women Engineers Exploring Technology (SWEET) is hosting an event for girls on Saturday, April 22nd from 12:30pm – 5:00pm. This half-day workshop will have engineering-related, hands-on activities for 6–12th grade girls and will include a strand for parents to learn about engineering careers also. Participant or Parent Fee: $7 (includes snacks) and registration closes on Wednesday, 4/19. Register at: <https://sweet2017.eventbrite.com>. (4/19 Mrs. Artz)

Attention Seniors: Are you considering attending UCSD next year? Are you looking for a full time summer job to help pay some of your college expenses? How about a summer job that turns into a part time job once school begins in September? If you are planning on majoring in any STEM field, consider applying for a CURE position this summer. CURE is a program that places students in labs full time in the summer between graduation and the beginning college. Students who complete the summer program can continue on in the lab on a part time basis AND receive college credit at the same time. Information meeting: Friday, May 21 at lunch in room C101. Questions? See Mrs. Artz. (4/19 Mrs. Artz)

Attention All 8th -11th Grade Female Volleyball Players: Coach Zamora is offering interested athletes a chance to participate in the Spring Volleyball Clinics! This year the clinics will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday April 18, 19, and 20th from 4:10-5:20 PM in the Walton Center. The sessions will improve fundamental volleyball skills within a fun and positive environment. The participants will be separated into skill appropriate sessions emphasizing player development in passing, serving, serve-serve, setting, hitting, defense and team formations. Players will also have an opportunity to learn and interact with the Coach Zamora and the Varsity Team. In order to participate in the volleyball clinics a permission slip must be filled out signed by a parent or guardian and must be returned to Coach no later than Friday April 14th. Space is limited and only the first 40 participants will secure a spot in this year's clinics. The permission slips may be picked up before school or during middle and high school lunch in room D202 or workroom D204.
