National School Counselor's Week, February 6-10, Thank you to our wonderful Preuss School Counselors!

This week is National School Counseling Week. The school counseling staff, like everyone in our school, is here to make a difference in your life. We want to help you reach your full potential and be successful in school and life. Every day, you face challenges that can be barriers to future success. We can help you deal with these challenges. We are here to help you deal with the challenges and frustrations that keep you from being the best you can be. That is what school counselors do. We help you build the future you want. Thank you for celebrating National School Counseling Week with us.

Reminder Items:

We Value You: From Thursday February 9th to Monday February 13th, there will be a booth at lunch where you can show your appreciation to your fellow students by creating a card. Chelsea's Light and ASB will distribute the cards on Value day, February 14th. (2/14 Mr. Carr)
