Daily Bulletin "B" Day
Thursday November 17, 2016*

Thanksgiving Holiday – School Closed Mon-Fri 11/21-25/2016

Chelsea’s Light Peer Corps Inspirational Quote Of The Day: “We can complain because rose bushes have thorns, or rejoice because thorn bushes have roses.”
–Abraham Lincoln

SAT WORDS: characteristic /adjective/ typical of a particular person, place, or thing

New Items:

High School Students: You all know they make artificial arms and legs, but did you know they are working on artificial parts for the eye? Come hear about the newly-invented Retinal Implants and other uses for electronics in the human body. Wednesday, November 30 from 1-2 pm in the library. Questions? See Mrs. Artz in C101. (11/30 Mrs. Artz)

Students & Staff: Please come and join the Student Support Services team tomorrow and Friday at lunch for our ‘Fall into Appreciation’ event in front of the Walton Center. We will have games, coloring and soothing music, but please at least stop by to write on a sticky note for our big poster an appreciation for someone or something here at Preuss. Our main hope and goal, is to ease some of the post-election stress and frustration that many students and staff have been experiencing and to provide some positive outreach! (11/ 17 Ms. Patrick)

Reminder Items:

Preuss Students: Last week Donald Trump was elected president and I know this has impacted Preuss students and staff. If you feel you need support processing the results of the election, please come see your school counselor. (11/18 Ms. Nieto)

All Students: Holidays are just around the corner! The 2017 Yearbook class would like to see how you spend your holidays with your family. Send in any Halloween, Thanksgiving, Ramadan, Christmas, Hannukah, or other holiday pictures you would like to see in this year's yearbook. Be sure the pictures include yourself or another Preuss student. You can email us your pictures to preussyearbook2017@gmail.com. (11/18 Mr. Ensberg)

Manchester Field Closed:

Starting November 1st, Manchester Field will be closed until November 28th due to re-seeding. Please make every attempt to keep students off the field. (11/28 Hawk)
