Good morning. Today is a part of National School Counseling Week. We would like to begin today's message with a quote from Eleanor Roosevelt. She once said, "The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams." Let me begin by asking you a question. What can you do to achieve your dreams? Work hard? Sure? Write down your dream on paper so you can see it every day. Of course. But there is one simple thing you must do in order to achieve your dreams – set goals. Goals, similar to dreams, are things that you aspire to do. You can have a goal to get a certain grade in your most challenging class. You can have a goal to create a time management plan for tackling your homework after school. You can even have a goal to wake up a bit earlier each day so you won't rush in the mornings before school. Goals are things you want to set your mind to accomplish. Do you need help with setting your personal goals? Your school counselors are here, so stop by and see us. Stay focused. Be kind. Be great! (Resendez 2/7)

All bookmarks to be entered in the contest must be received, no later than 4 pm on Friday, February 9th. Please note: any bookmarks not meeting all requirements will be disqualified. All requirements are posted in each room and we have flyers to take in the library. Best of luck! Ms. Nance and Ms. Gonzalez (Nance 2/9)
