Daily Bulletin "B" Day
Tuesday, May 1, 2018*

Chelsea's Light Quote of The Day:

There are only two ways to live your life. One is as though nothing is a miracle. The other is as though everything is a miracle.

-Albert Einstein

SAT WORDS: rhapsodize (v.) to engage in excessive enthusiasm

Attention all Students

This Friday, May 4th is a late start day. School will begin at 10:15 am. The student handbook has an error and states that May 4th is an early start day due to testing. The only early start Friday this month due to testing will be Friday, May 11th . School will begin at 8:55 am. (5/4 Gomes)

New Items:

This month is mental health awareness month. Approximately 9 million children in the U.S. have serious emotional problems, but only 1 in 5 of these children is receiving appropriate treatment. When people are able to get help, they can recover or learn to manage their mental health, and live happy, productive lives. NAMI on Campus Club has organized various events throughout the month in order to raise awareness and reduce stigma for mental health. Please see various flyers around campus for specific dates. Tomorrow at lunch we will have a table outside the Walton center with a small activity. Please come see us. –NAMI On Campus club members (5/1 Esquivel)

Students-Body sprays and colognes, such as "Axe" and other aerosols are prohibited at school. It is a safety issue due to allergic reactions. All Preuss students are expected to comply. (5/18 Selleck)

Attention 9-11th grade students. Are you passionate about supporting the undocumented community? Ms. Resendez will be taking up to nine students to the 11th Annual Immigrant Empowerment Conference on Saturday June 9th at UCLA.

This free, day-long event is open to students, parents, educators, allies and community members, and aims to raise awareness about the various pertinent and urgent issues that impact the undocumented community. Through keynote speakers, workshops and interactive activities, this conference aims to educate, empower and provide attendees with a platform to understand and navigate legislation, financial, legal and mental health resources, and the complex intersections of identity and immigration status.

See Ms. Resendez for a parent permission slip and more details. (5/11 Resendez)

Reminder Items:

High school students: The Preuss Insider is now taking applications for its 2018-19 staff. Journalism is looking for students interested not only in writing but also taking pictures, fundraising, designing and laying out the paper. If you already selected Journalism during course selection, YOU MUST STILL APPLY TO JOURNALISM. And if you did not, you can still change your mind and apply for the class. Just pick up your application from Ms. Garcia in room E103 and return it by Fri, May 4. Journalism is a student-led class with lots of opportunities for leadership positions. Apply today! TRANSPORTATION STUDENT ID CARDS (Z PASS)

All students using transportation services are required to have a Z-Pass Bus Card. The Card should be retained by the student for future transportation assignments in the following years (*If eligible only. The card does not guarantee future transportation eligibility).

Please, review the following procedures regarding the use of the transportation Z Pass ID Card:

- Use transportation Student ID Card each day when boarding and exiting the school bus.
- Every student who rides a SDUSD bus must be able to present a Z-Pass Card and scan on and off the bus.
- If the Z-Pass Card is lost, damaged or stolen, students must notify immediately to Mrs. Villanueva and bus driver. The card will be deactivated to prevent unauthorized use, and a
