Congratulations to Winner of EAOP Cesar Chavez Essay Contest!

Junior Virginia Reyes is the Grand Prize Winner! She is being modest, and has told no one, but I say, give her a shout-out! Also, last week 8th grader Franklin Hang won first place in the National Rifle Association's 2nd Amendment Essay Contest in the Junior Category. He beat out all entrants in grades 9 and below nationwide! This comes with a nice prize, and he is really shocked and happy!

April is National Poetry Month. Today's poem for April 9th is a whimsical poem that plays with rhyme.

—Ms. Gabay

Color Me Happy! by Arden Davidson

If I were the color blue,
I'd sing sad songs for you.

If I were the color yellow,
I'd be a happy fellow.

If I were the color red
I'd look like me when I bled.

If I were the color green,
I'd grow like a big string bean.

If I were the color brown,
I'd be a chocolate town.

If I were the color pink,
I'd be a lemony drink.

If I were the color purple,
Nothing would rhyme with me.

April is National Poetry Month. Yesterday's poem for April 8th uses the many meanings of the word "line" to talk about love, --Ms. Gabay

LINES by Martha Collins

Draw a line. Write a line. There.
Stay in line; hold the line, a glance between the lines is fine but don't turn corners, cross, cut in, go over or out, between two points of no return's a line of flight, between two points of view's a line of vision.
But a line of thought is rarely
Straight, an open line's no party
Line, however fine your point.
A line of fire communicates, but drop
Your weapons and drop your line,
Consider the shortest distance from x
To y, let x be me, let y be you.

Performing Arts Events in April: Shakespeare! We have two very exciting events to invite you to in April.
