RHO KAPPA THIS DAY IN HISTORY Abolitionist

On this day in 1818, it is the possible birthday of Frederick Douglass. Though the specific day of his birthday isn't confirmed, he celebrates it on February 14 due to the fact that his mother called him "Little Valentine." Frederick Douglass later became an orator, an abolitionist against slavery and advocated for women's rights like right to vote.

Rho Kappa Honor Society is running a scavenger hunt during February and the top participants by the end of the month will receive a prize! To join, please visit our instagram\(@preuss\_rhokappa\) for rules and hints on the scavenger hunts. Enjoy finding our props around campus!"

Guess this staff member

Who am I?

I've been at Preuss for 2 years and I graduated from UC Santa Barbara. My favorite color is green. My favorite foods are seafood boils and breakfast foods. A fun fact is that I saw 35+ artists live in concert last year.
