Unleash Your Inner Storyteller with Broadcast Journalism!

Attention high schoolers grades 10-12! Are you ready to dive into the exciting world of storytelling? Then join Ms. Hannah for an exhilarating journey in Broadcast Journalism!

In this A-G College Prep elective, you'll discover the power of your voice as you learn to craft compelling narratives, conduct captivating interviews, and deliver news like a pro. Whether you're interested in being in front of the camera or behind the scenes, this class is your ticket to unlocking your potential in the dynamic field of media.

Get ready to uncover stories that matter, ignite change, and leave a mark on the Preuss community. With Ms. Hannah's guidance, you'll develop critical thinking skills, hone your communication abilities, and gain hands-on experience in producing content that informs, entertains and inspires.

If you have a B or higher in English, seize this opportunity to thrive in Broadcast Journalism. Ask your counselors about joining when they come to your Advisory and present on course selections this month. Your voice matters, and it's time to make it heard!

RHO KAPPA

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

February 29, 1940, Hattie McDaniel became the first African American woman to win the Oscar Award for her supporting role as 'Mammy' in the movie "Gone With The Wind." McDaniel have starred in over 300 films and had her own radio series called Beulah. However, she didn't just contribute to the acting industry; she also donated to educational activities of the NAACP and Sigma Gamma Rho.

Rho Kappa Honor Society is running a scavenger hunt during February and the top participants by the end of the month will receive a prize! To join, please visit our instagram\(@preuss_rhokappa\) for rules and hints on the scavenger hunts. Enjoy finding our props around campus!"
