Chelsea's Light Quote of the Day:

Every day, think as you wake up, today I am fortunate to be alive, I have a precious human life, I am not going to waste it. I am going to use all my energies to develop myself, to expand my heart out to others; to achieve enlightenment for the benefit of all beings. I am going to have kind thoughts towards others, I am not going to get angry or think badly about others. I am going to benefit others as much as I can.

-The Dalai Lama

SAT WORDS: anthology (n.) a selected collection of writings, song, etc.

April is National Poetry Month. Today's poem for April 24, 2019, reminds us that a person of any age can feel young and happy at any time.

The Bagel

David Ignatow

I stopped to pick up the bagel rolling away in the wind,
annoyed with myself
for having dropped it as if it were a portent.
Faster and faster it rolled,
with me running after it bent low, gritting my teeth, and I found myself doubled over and rolling down the street head over heels, one complete somersault after another like a bagel and strangely happy with myself.

The purpose of this scavenger hunt is to raise awareness for mental health since the month of May is mental health awareness month. If you are interested in participating you can obtain a scavenger hunt form from your advisory teacher. Once you have obtained a form you will have all week to get a stamp from all the locations/people on the scavenger hunt form. You will ONLY be allowed to get your form stamped before school, during lunch, or during passing period. PLEASE, PLEASE do not visit teachers/staff during class for a stamp. They will NOT give you the stamp at that time. Once you have all the clues stamped you can take your form to the resource table at lunch any day of the week. A NAMI on Campus club member (will be wearing lime green ribbons all week) can provide you with an evaluation form and a lime green ribbon to be completed before you can pick your prize at the table. I hope you enjoy and play responsibly. (Torre 5/3)
