Chelsea's Light Quote of the Day:
Instead of worrying about what you cannot control,
shift your energy to what you can create.
-Roy T. Bennett

SAT WORDS: diffuse (v.) to scatter, thin out, break up

Rho Kappa Social Studies Honor Society presents This Day in History:

On this day, Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, leader of the Indian independence movement, was shot and killed in New Delhi. In an effort to unify the mass morale of India against the British, he urged the cooperation of Hindus and Muslims. However, the perpetrator, Nathuram Godse, was a Hindu extremist that detested Gandhi's tolerance towards the Muslim people. Gandhi's actions of civil disobedience inspired leaders such as Martin Luther King Jr. (1948) (Greco 1/30)

Reminders:

Hello high school students. Are you interested in starting a mural for The Preuss School UCSD? Do you want to share your ideas for the mural design? If you are interested, then please ask your advisory teachers to give you access to the mural survey. (Noorzay 1/30)

Congratulations Spelling Bee Champions

Congratulations to our schoolwide spelling bee champion, 7th grader Anthony Mendias, and our runner up, 7th grader Jennifer Serna. In front of 200 peers, these spellers survived nearly 20 rounds of competition to earn the prize of best spellers at the Preuss School. Anthony, who won by spelling the words "lustrous" and "relinquish", will now be representing Preuss in the countywide competition on March 14, the winner of which gets a free trip to Washington DC to compete in the National Spelling Bee. Good luck, Anthony! Also, a big shoutout to our other top spellers: grade 7-- Nova Sloan and Vy Ho; grade 8 -- Gabbie Ibarra Lara, Christian Sanchez, Tony Vo, and Jahmya Jordan. Keep up the great work! (Ensberg 2/1)

Hello students, as many of you already know, we are so fortunate to be able to provide snacks for you as needed. This has been made possible through a partnership we have with the San Diego Food Bank. Each time you receive a snack you will need to fill out a google form that takes a few seconds to complete. The link to the google form is tinyurl.com/block8snacks. This google form allows us and San Diego Food Bank to continue providing these snacks for you in the future. If snacks are taken without the completion of the form and/or without permission we can lose this wonderful program. PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE see a teacher or me for snacks. If what we provide is not enough, you can definitely ask for more. DO NOT take the snacks without permission and without filling out the form. Thank you for your cooperation. Lastly, please be sure to keep our campus clean by throwing away your snack trash in a trashcan. (Torre 2/28)

Preuss Model United Nations (MUN) Student Editorial to develop "Good Global Citizens":

In May 2018, Nicolás Maduro was re-elected to a second term as the president of Venezuela. However, many Venezuelans see his election as unfair and illegitimate, for many opposition candidates were not allowed to run, were jailed, or fled the country for fear of being imprisoned. On Saturday, the UN Security Council met in an urgent meeting to try to negotiate a solution as popular protests against Maduro intensified following the self-proclamation of Juan Guaidó, the leader of the National Assembly, as interim president. This directly challenged Maduro's swearing in to his second term on January 10th, but the opposition-led National Assembly argues that Venezuela's constitution allows this since (in their view) the election was illegitimate. After a contentious debate, UN Security Council members were at odds over the best response to the aforementioned developments. (Greco 1/30)
