Certain things catch your eye, but pursue only those that capture the heart.-
Ancient Indian Proverb

Rho Kappa Social Studies Honor Society presents This Day in History

Steve Jobs, dressed in jeans and a black turtleneck, debuts the first iPhone at the Macworld convention in San Francisco. Everyone was excited for this "revolutionary and magical product," and was even further pleased as it first went on sale 6 months later for $499. The iPhone transformed Apple into one of the world's most profitable companies and it integrated into the people's everyday lives. (2007)

SAT WORDS: interval /noun/ the distance between things; a definite length of time marked off by two instants
