Preuss Model United Nations announcement to develop "Good Global Citizens": Why Everyone Should Vote

"Voting is a constitutional right and duty that allows Americans to have influence in the government. It is important that everyone eligible to vote participates in the process because it determines what laws or leaders will be passed or elected. A higher voter turnout rate in an election ensures that our American democracy is more representative because many differing views are accounted for. Like it or not, in politics everyone has their own opinion, so why not let your voice be heard in the upcoming gubernatorial election." (Boquiren 11/2)
