Preuss Model United Nations announcement to develop "Good Global Citizens":

"Education is generally viewed as a ticket out of poverty, however access to a quality education continues to be a pressing issue. According to the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), nearly 3.7 million children in Afghanistan are barred from an education as a result of conflict, poverty, and discrimination against girls. Children not attending schools are at an increased risk of abuse, exploitation, and recruitment in addition to being at an economic disadvantage." (Boquiren 9/5)
