Breaking News from the Rho Kappa Social Studies Honor Society:

On December 18th, 2019, President Donald J. Trump became the third United States President to be impeached. The House of Representatives voted 230-197 in favor of impeachment under the charge of abuse of power. Trump has been accused of pressuring Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky into investigating former Vice President Joe Biden, who is a potential presidential candidate in the 2020 election, in exchange for military aid to Ukraine and a meeting at the White House. Additionally, they voted 229-198 in favor of impeachment for obstruction of Congress, because Trump has resisted requests made by Congress during the impeachment inquiries. Despite being impeached in the House of Representatives, President Trump will not be out of office unless he either resigns or the Senate comes to a majority vote during the upcoming trial, which will likely take place in January. Rho Kappa Social Studies Honor Society presents This Day in History

The Louisiana Purchase is completed as the territory was formally transferred from France to the US during ceremonies in New Orleans. This land acquisition, which took place under the leadership of President Thomas Jefferson, doubled the size of the US and was later part of the debate over the expansion of slavery. (1803)
