Attention all Scholars:

Congratulations Playwrights Projects Winners and Finalists!

A record eight Preuss School students were honored on Saturday at the Playwrights Project Lights Up Award Ceremony for their original one-act plays! The students are

Arely Gomez Hernandez, Jessica Mariano, Anthony Mendias, Karim Berdeja, Eden Fente, Angelina Abdelrahman, Vy Ho, and Gael Herrera.

Special congratulations go to Arely Gomez Hernandez for taking home the top prize in the 14 years and younger category for her play, "The Fight for a Dream." Arely's play together with the other winning plays will be read aloud by professional actors in March. Playwrights chose its winning plays in a blind read out of 243 submissions from 73 schools across 26 districts. Preuss students took home more than half of the awards given in the middle school playwrighting category with plays written as part of the Playwrights Project residency provided to eighth- and seventh-grade students last year with guest teacher Aurora Arnold. A big thank and congratulations to Ms. Arnold and to the winning students for their wonderful work!
