"The word Latinx was first heard more than a decade ago, dating back to the 1990s. Pronounced "Latin-ex," Latinx is a gender neutral alternative to Latino and Latina. It was created to show support to the LGBTQIA+ community for those who don’t identify as male or female. Despite Latinx being around for years, only 23% of Hispanics in the U.S. are familiar with the term and only 3% use it as an identifier." -Quote.
