

Good morning!

Yesterday, we shared with you that we are focusing on how school counselors help all students thrive. But how do we know when you're thriving? We know you're thriving when we see you meeting your goals. We know more about how you're doing than you may think. Even if we've never sat down and chatted one on one, we know if you're succeeding in your classes, if you could use some help in managing your time or if you would benefit from some coaching in managing friendships.

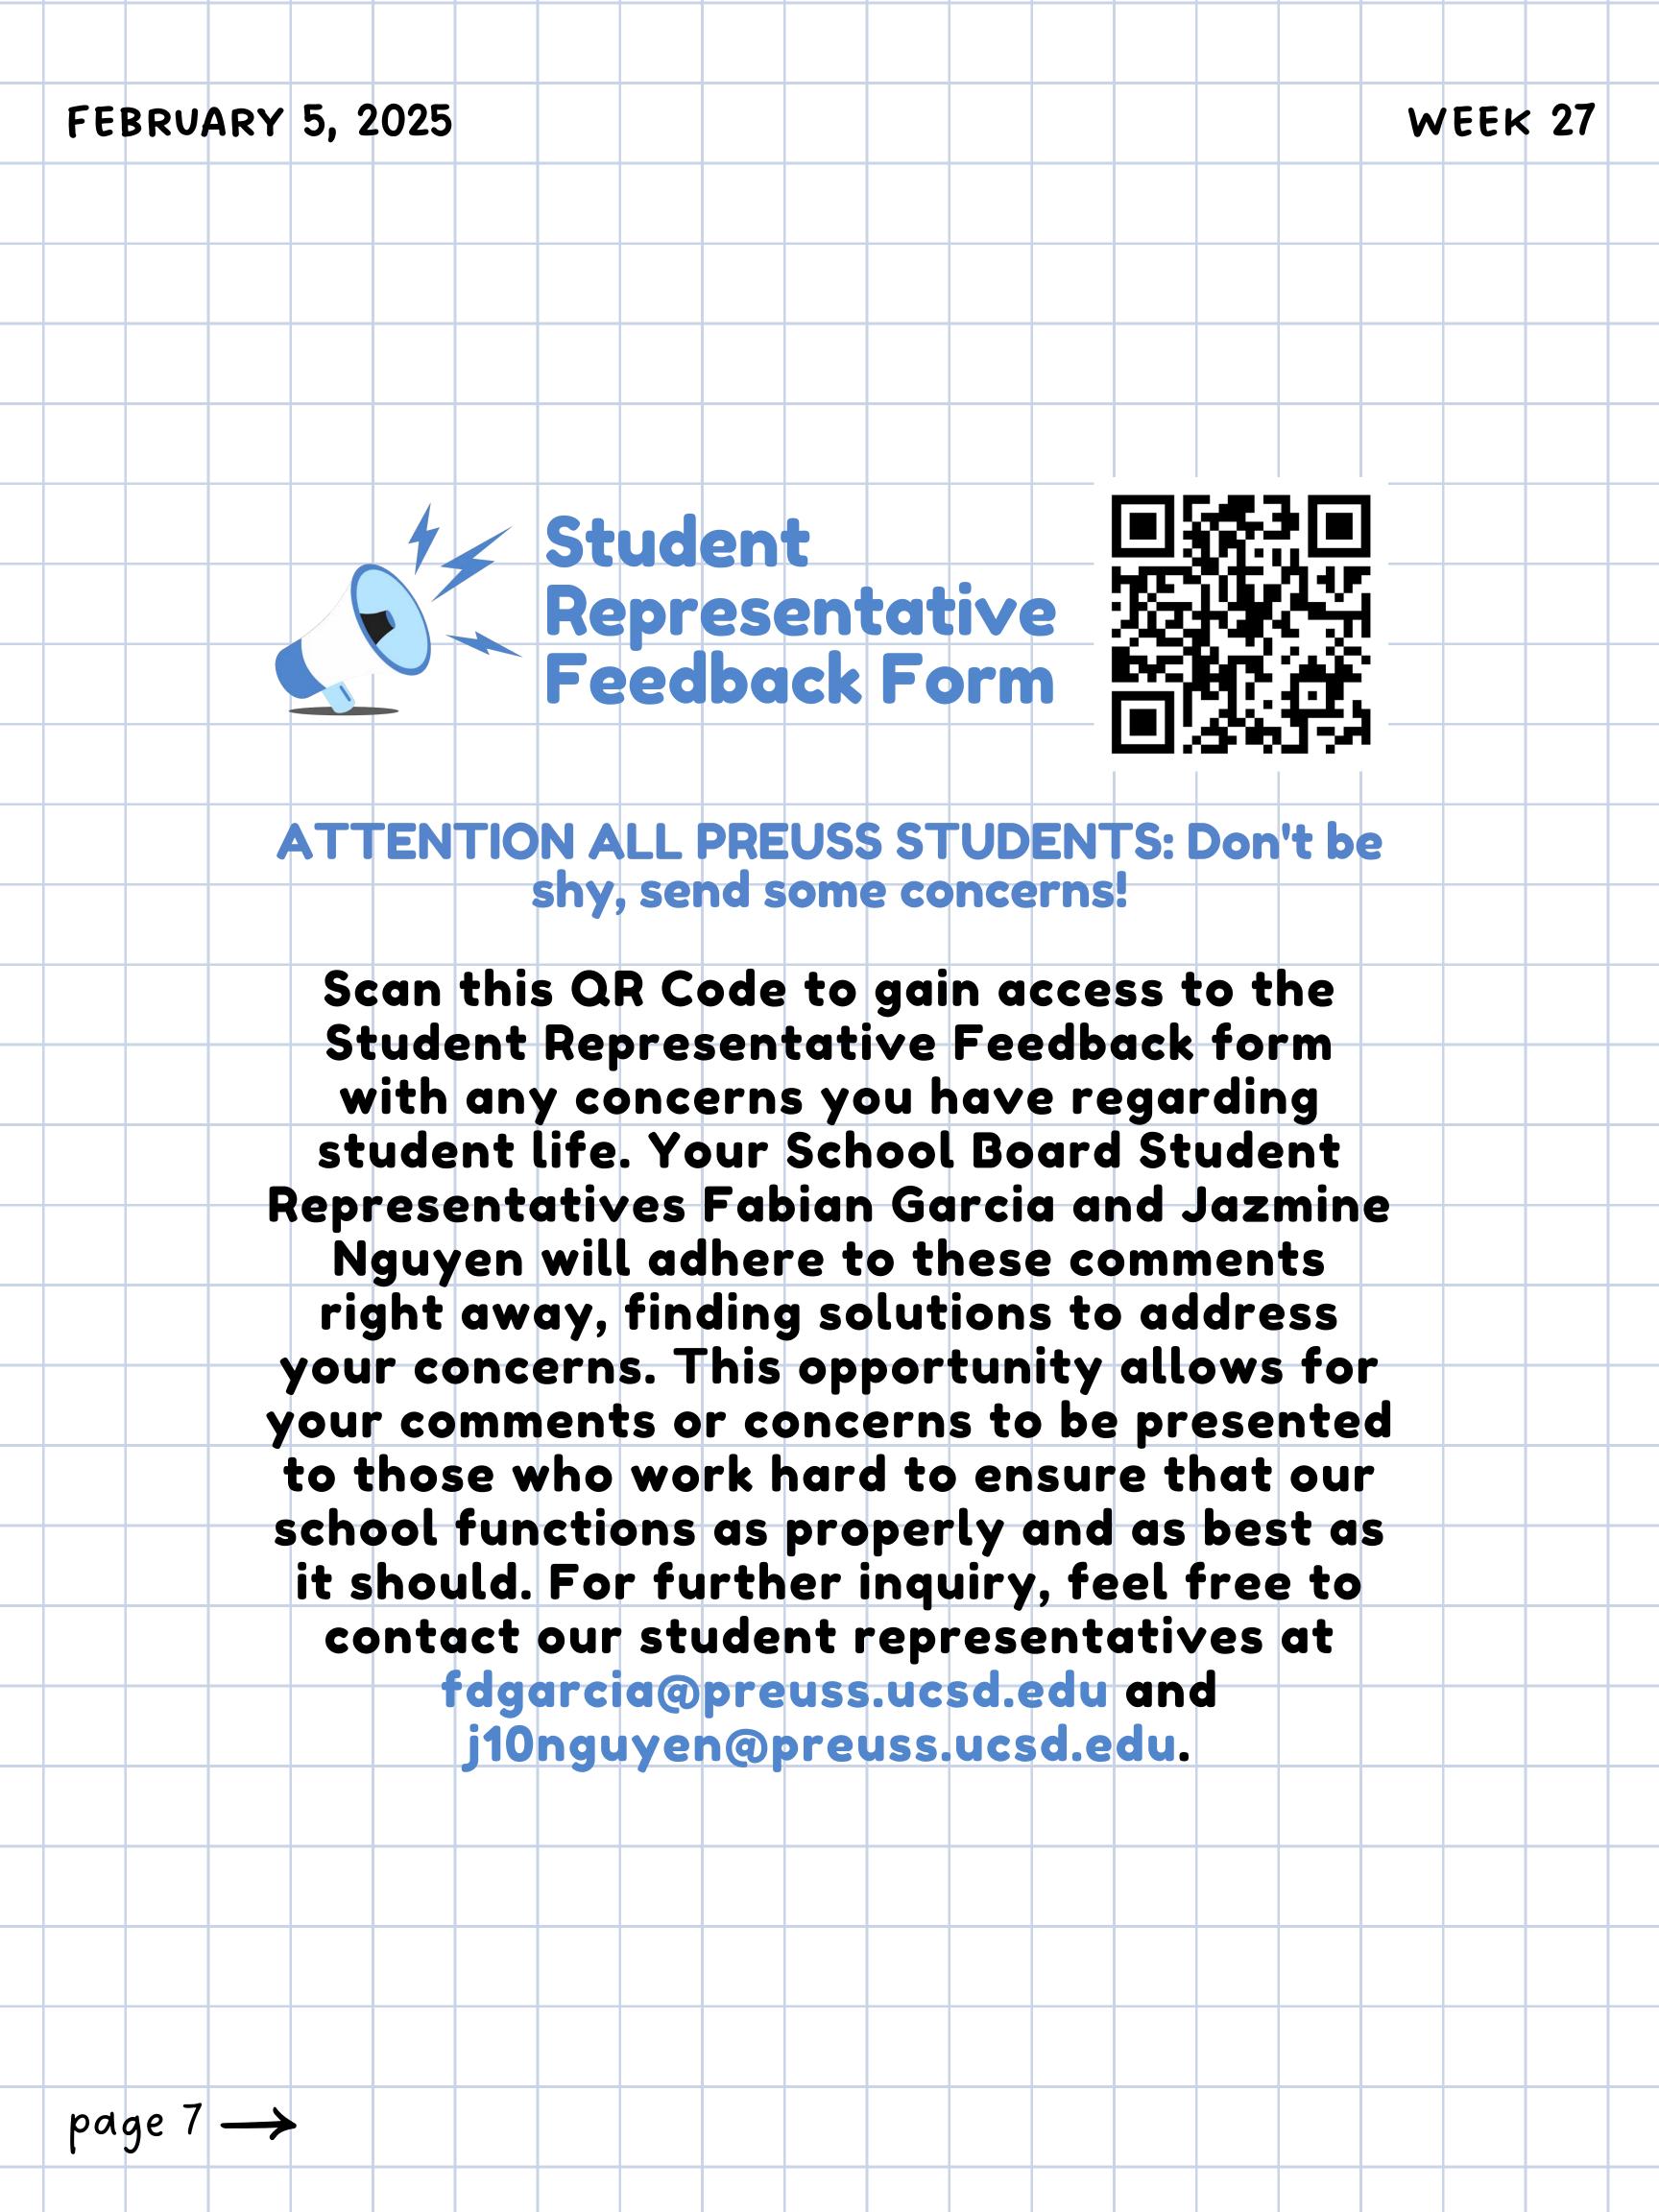

When you THRIVE, we thrive, too. If thriving feels out of reach, let's talk.

We are here for you!
