If you encounter ICE on the street

- NOT required to stop and talk with them, answer questions, or show documents
- Say " I know I have the Right to Remain Silent"
- Am I under arrest or am I free to go?

If ICE comes to your home:

- Don't open the door. Ask them, with the door closed, "Do you have a warrant?"
- Have them slide the warrant under the door. The warrant must be signed by a judge and have the correct name and address.
  - If they do enter, you have the right to remain silent and the right to speak to a lawyer.
  - Do not sign any document.

EXPLANATION OF WARRANT NEEDED

- A phrase to practice is: "I'm not sure what this is about, but I know that I have the right to remain silent"
- Calmly and respectfully ask "Am I under arrest or am I free to go?"
- Kindness goes a long way with ICE and police
- Avoid taking risks and being in the wrong place at the wrong time
- Remain respectful and calm

This day in history...

This Day In History
Women's History Month Edition!

MARCH 6TH, 2026

BIRTHDAY ANNOUNCEMENTS!
Opera Conductor Sarah Caldwell (March 6, 1924) helped break gender barriers within the male-dominated opera field and became the first woman to conduct at the Metropolitan Opera in 1976. Her remarkable skills would help earn her the National Medal of Arts in 1997.

March 6th, 1971
The Women's Liberation Movement had their first national March in which ~5,000 women and supporters marched to demand for equal pay and education, as well as 24 hour nurseries. Unlike their previous campaigning, this one was visible to the public and purposeful; it helped bring together different factions within the movement to unify for one cause. Through their valiant efforts, the movement was able to ultimately transform society by challenging gender discrimination and pushing for equality.

March 6th, 1993
First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt holds the first ever women-only press conference in the White House. This move on her part was to ensure that women were also included in the news during a time when it seemed that men were the only ones that could participate. She would go on to continue this tradition for the next 12 years of President Roosevelt's terms, ensuring that women journalists remained employed and had access to high-level information.

Musical Fact of the Week

TRI - M'S MUSICAL OF THE WEEK... THE ORIGIN OF THE SAXOPHONE

Instrument: Saxophone
Invented By: Adolphe sax
Place of origin: Belgium (later developed in paris, france)
Year invented: 1840s

Why The Saxophone was invented:

- Adolphe Sax wanted to create an instrument that combined the power of brass instruments with the agility and expressiveness of woodwinds. His goal was to improve the sound of military and orchestral bands.

How the Saxophone Works:
Although it is made out of brass, the saxophone is classified as a woodwind instrument because it uses a single reed to produce sound. This unique design allows it to blend easily with both brass and woodwind sections.

The saxophone's cultural impact:

- Became a defining instrument of jazz music
- Used in classical compositions, marching bands, and modern genres
- Symbolizes musical freedom and emotional expression
