2-1-1
DISASTER RESPONSE

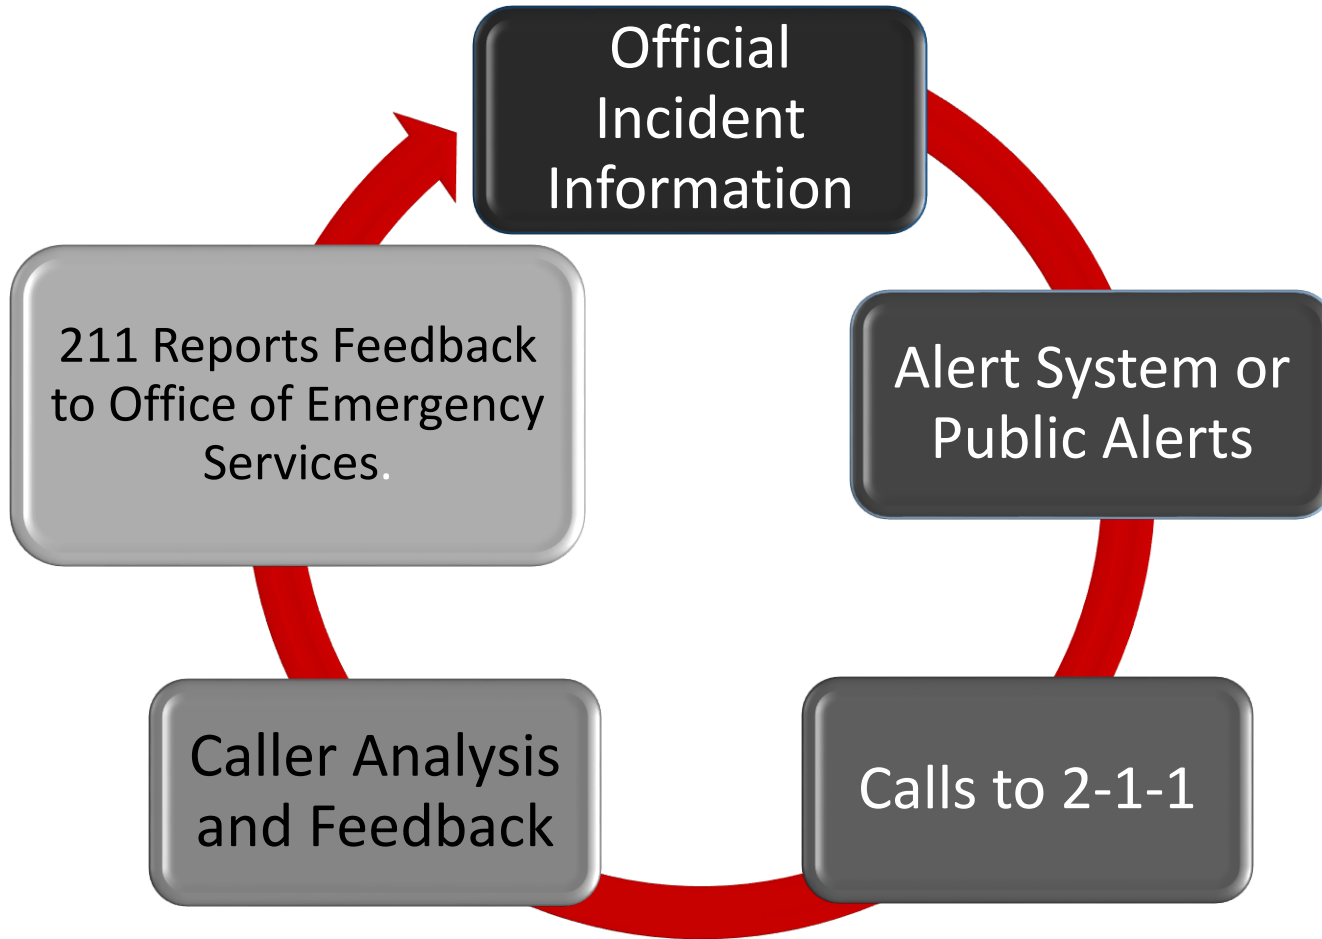

How Did 2-1-1 Get Into Disaster Business?

- 2001 – The necessity for 2-1-1 as a means of aggregating resources and enhancing post-disaster assistance become apparent after 9/11.
- Governor of Connecticut optimizes statewide 2-1-1 system to assist those searching for loved ones.
- Brookings Institute later called 9/11 response in NYC and DC “disjointed and haphazard” health and human services system.
- Released follow up report “Calling 2-1-1: Enhancing the Washington Region’s Safety Net After 9/11” specifically recommending the implementation of a 2-1-1 system.
- 2005 – Post Katrina and Rita disasters, FEMA issued an After-Action-Report follow-up that recognized the accomplishments of 2-1-1 recommending that states move forward on statewide 2-1-1 implementation.
- 2006 – FEMA formally recognizes 2-1-1 as a information channel during times of disaster.

2-1-1 Response Function

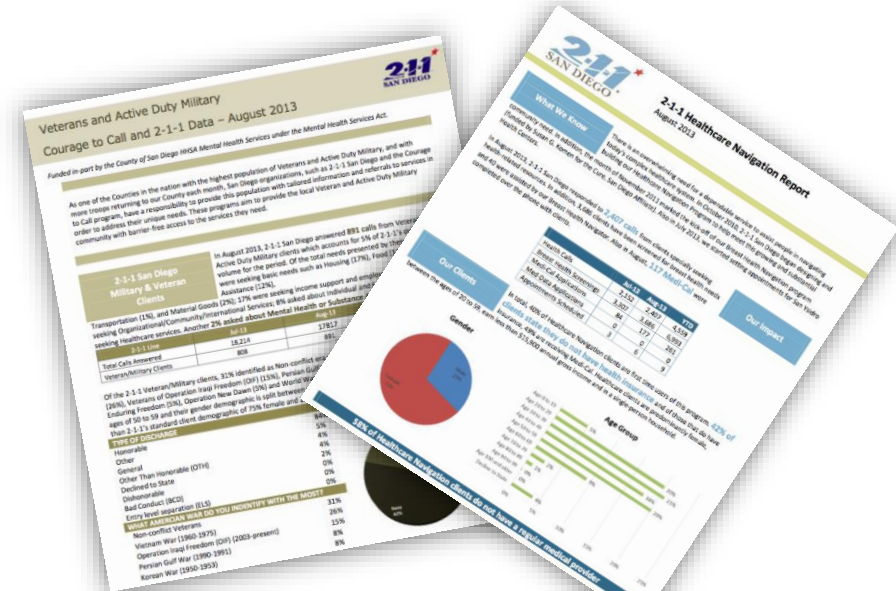

2-1-1's Disaster Response Resume

- 2007 Firestorm
- 2008 Flooding
- 2008 Hurricanes Gustav & Ike

The Importance of Student Attendance

- ▶ Student attendance dipped around the winter vacation
- ▶ Result, students missed out on valuable class time
- ▶ Funding was reduced, the majority of funding is based upon Average Daily Attendance (ADA)
- ▶ It is imperative students only stay home when they are ill
- ▶ Please support student learning and School funding

Your Support Matters

A Message from the Nurse

- ▶ It's cold and flu season
- ▶ If you suspect your child is ill with a cough or sore throat accompanied by a fever please have them evaluated by a doctor
- ▶ Students need to stay home if they have a fever greater than 100 degrees and until they are fever free for 24hours
- ▶ To prevent colds and flu encourage your child to:
 - Wash hands or use sanitizer especially before eating
 - Keep fingers away from nose and mouth
 - Cover cough/sneezes.
 - Hand washing is the number one way to prevent illness
- ▶ It is strongly suggested you get your flu shot yearly. Flu vaccines are formulated each year to prevent forecasted viruses

Preuss Robotics

- ▶ Preuss Robotics will be participating in the 10th Annual FIRST Robotics Regional Competition in San Diego, March 2nd – 5th, 2016.
- ▶ They will also be participating in the Fifth Central Valley Regional FIRST Robotics Competition in Madera California, March 10-13th, 2016
- ▶ Teams comes from all over the world to participate in these challenging events
